

LLP ERASMUS INTENSIVE PROGRAMME

Organic Agriculture-Innovation for a Sustainable Agriculture, Food Safety and Public Health

from 24th May to 6th June 2009

Context and objectives:

To provide all participants with information about activities concerning organic agriculture, regarding to managerial skills, to advice and inform on the potential of organic agriculture to contribute to environmental quality, income generation and food safety as well as to sustainable development

ETCS: 5 credits

Language:

English - participating students need a good level of working English

Teaching staff:

Lectures from Mendel University and the partner universities

Costs for participating in the course:

No fee; accommodation and meals during the course are paid by LLP Programme; 75% of the cheapest travel costs are paid as well; all excursions are free of charge.

Why to join our intensive programme?

- Explore city of Brno and the surroundings
- Work in multinational groups
- Get to know students from 7 European countries
- Accumulate 5 ETCS credits within 2 weeks
- No participation fee
- Accommodation, excursions and cultural programme for free
- Only pay 25 %of your travel costs

<http://summerschool.mendelu.cz/>

