

Interest of employees and students in a food-coop at BOKU university - Results of BOKU-online survey

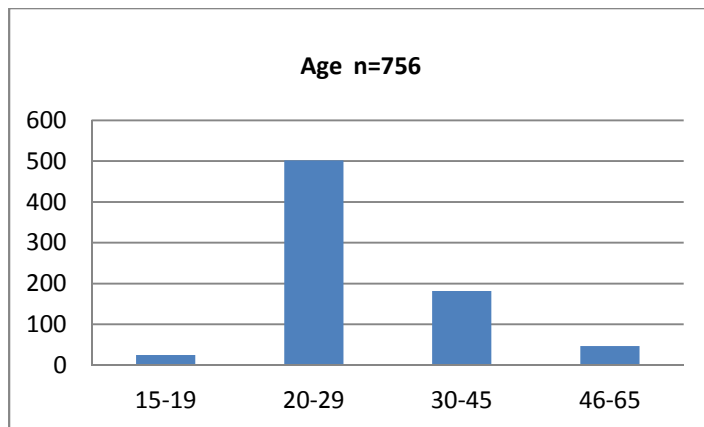

In April 2013, an online survey about the interest in a food-cooperative (food-coop) at BOKU was sent out to all students and employees of BOKU. The survey was initiated in the lecture "Organic farming and regional development" (nr. 933.316), and serves as a starting point for a group of persons that is currently setting first steps to implement a food-coop at BOKU. 756 persons answered the survey.

Contact: foodcoop.boku@gmail.com

Thank you for your contribution!

****

Q1: Please indicate your age.

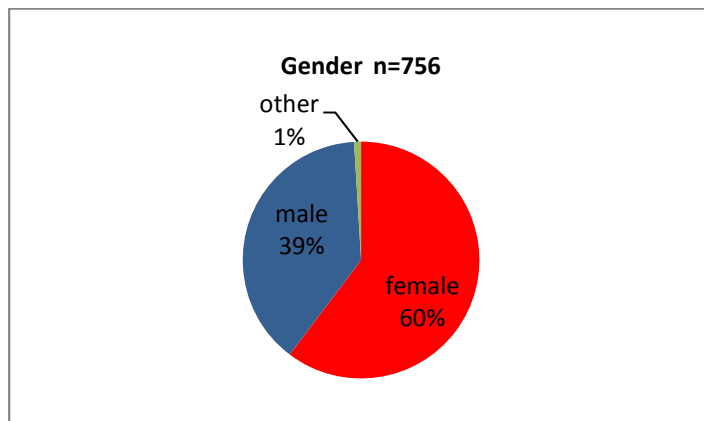

Median = 39 years

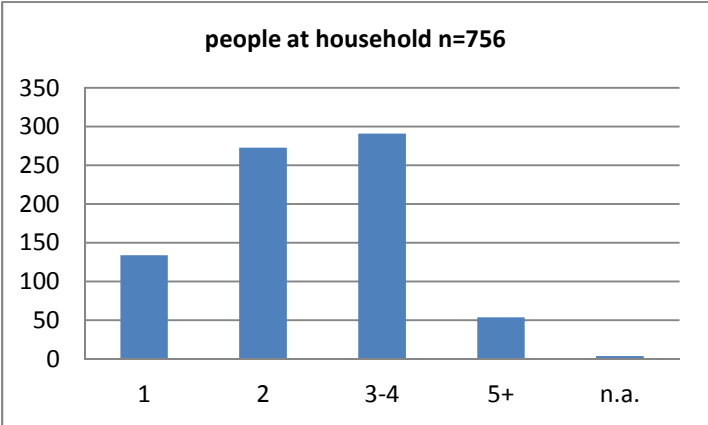

Min = 17 years

Max = 61 years

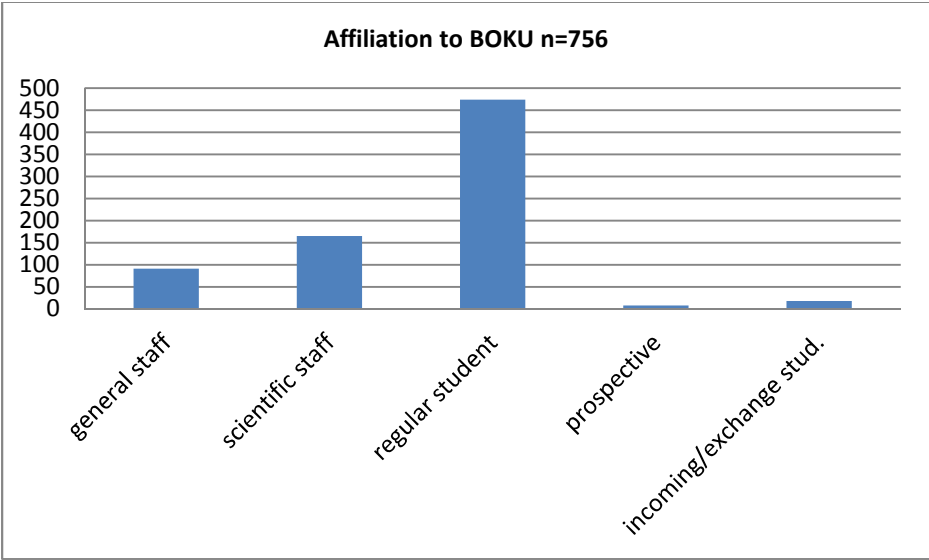

Q2: Please indicate your gender.

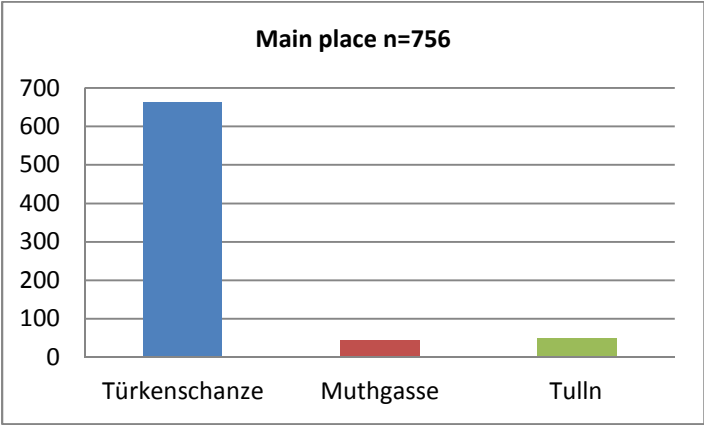

Q3: Please indicate the number of people who live in your household.

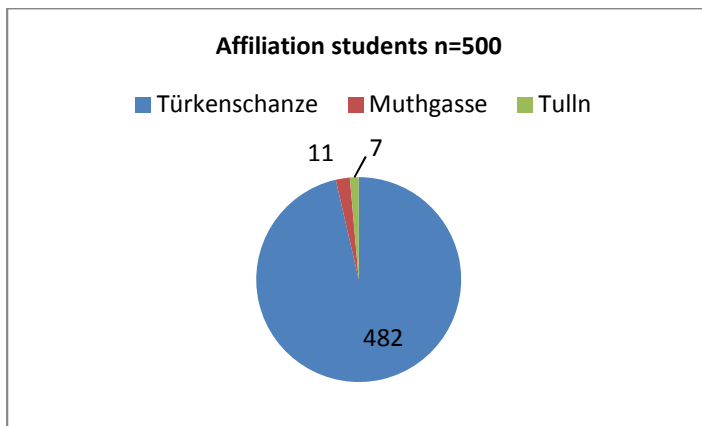

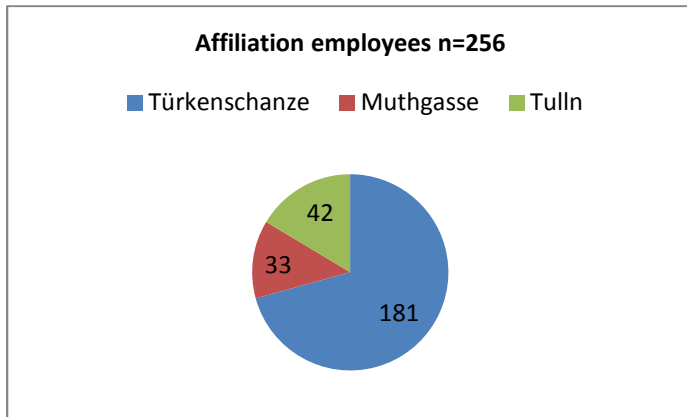

Q4: Affiliation to BOKU.

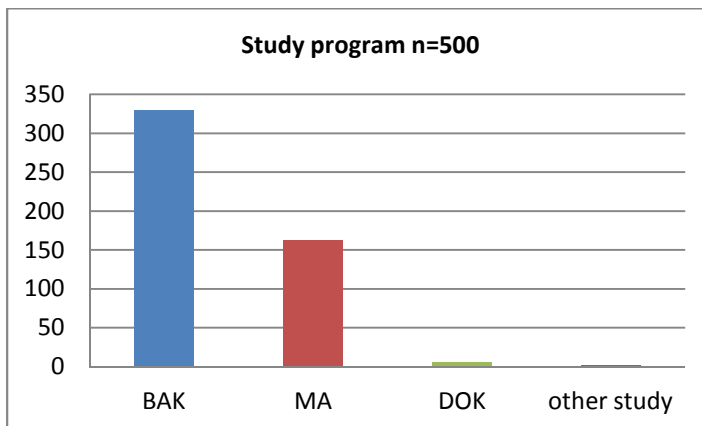

Q5: Main place of study or work.

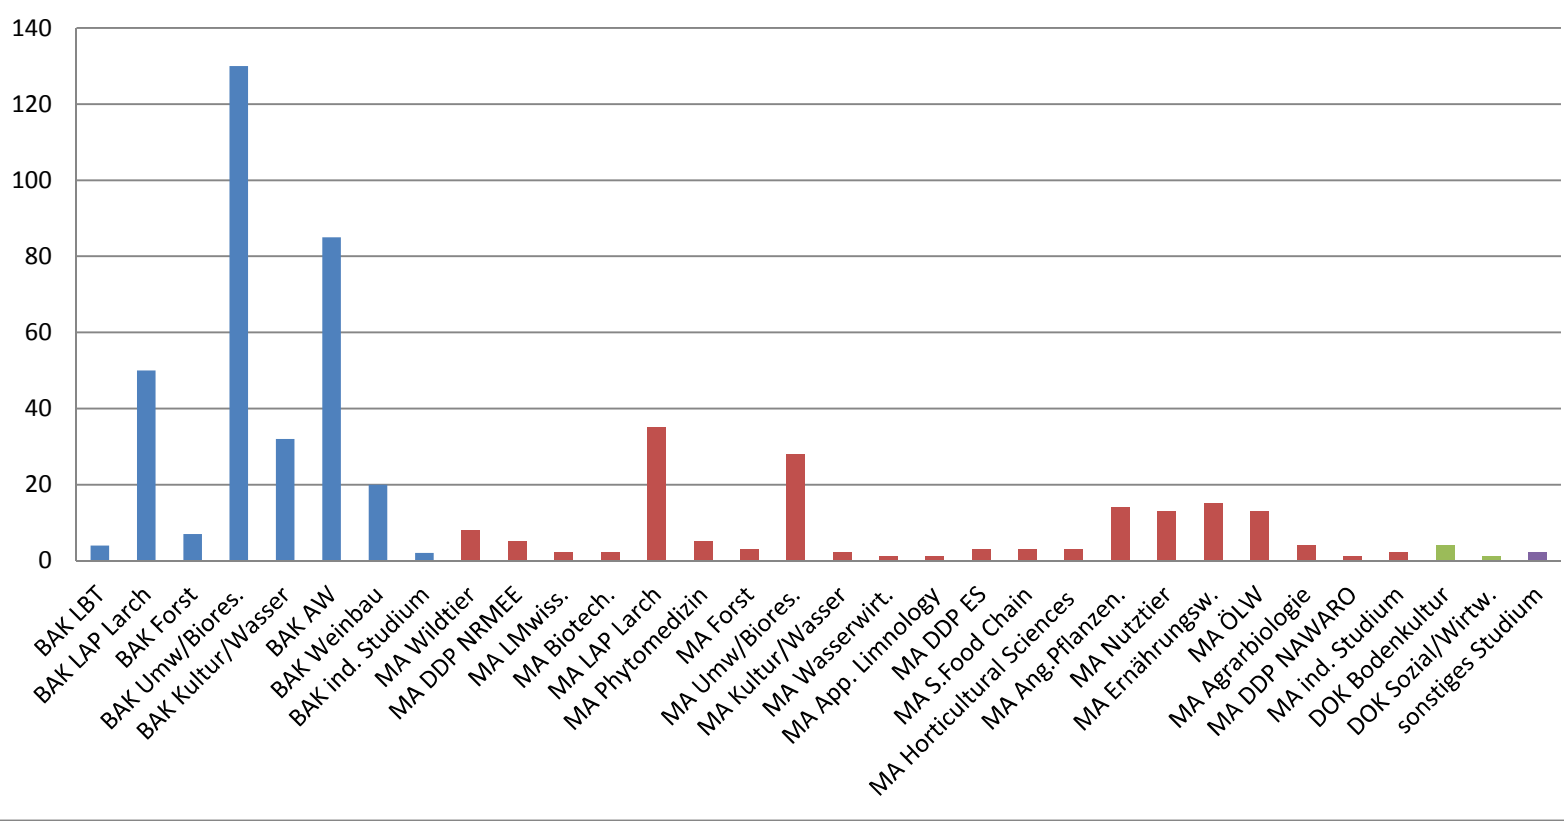

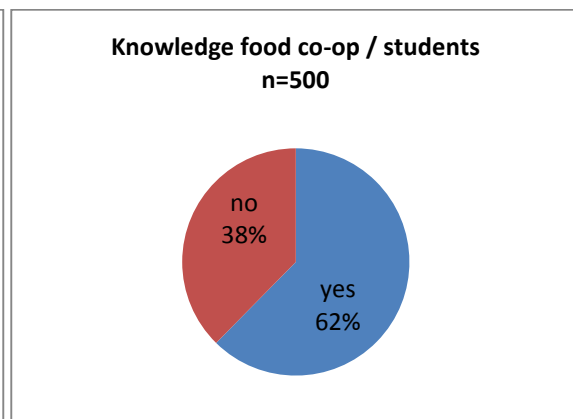

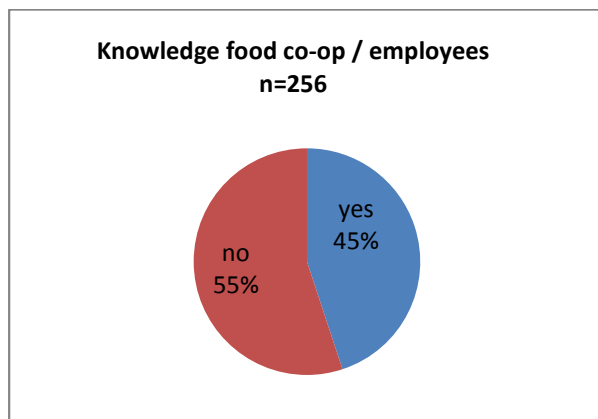

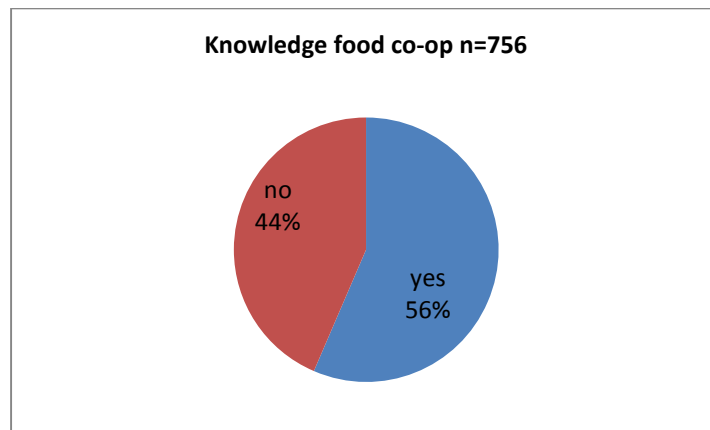

Q6: For students: Under which programme do you study?

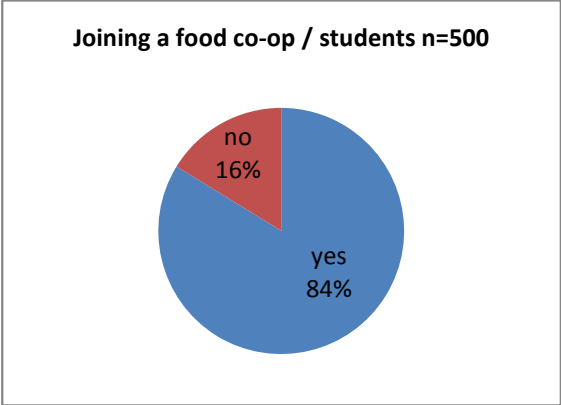

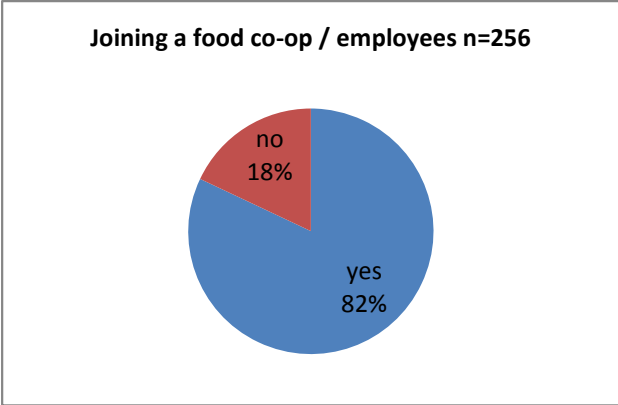

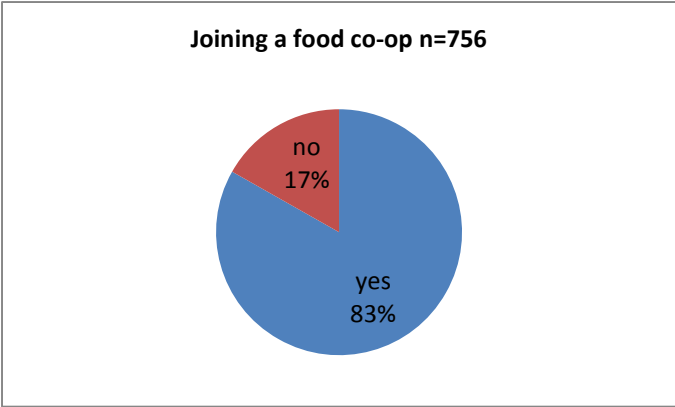

Study program n=500

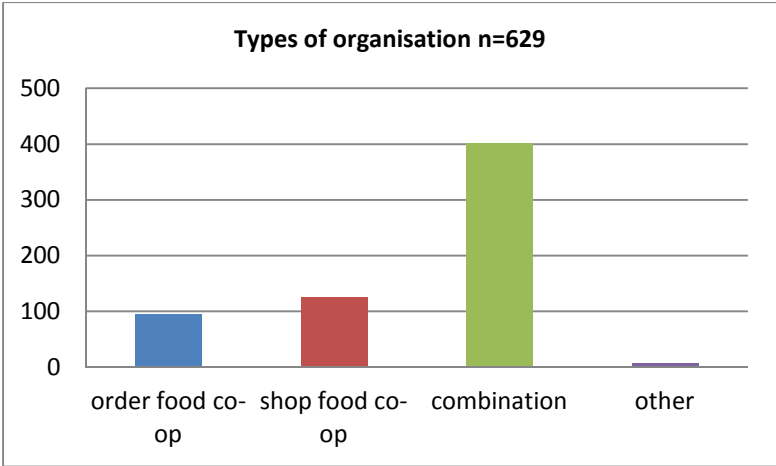

Q7: Have you heard of the term "food co-op" before?

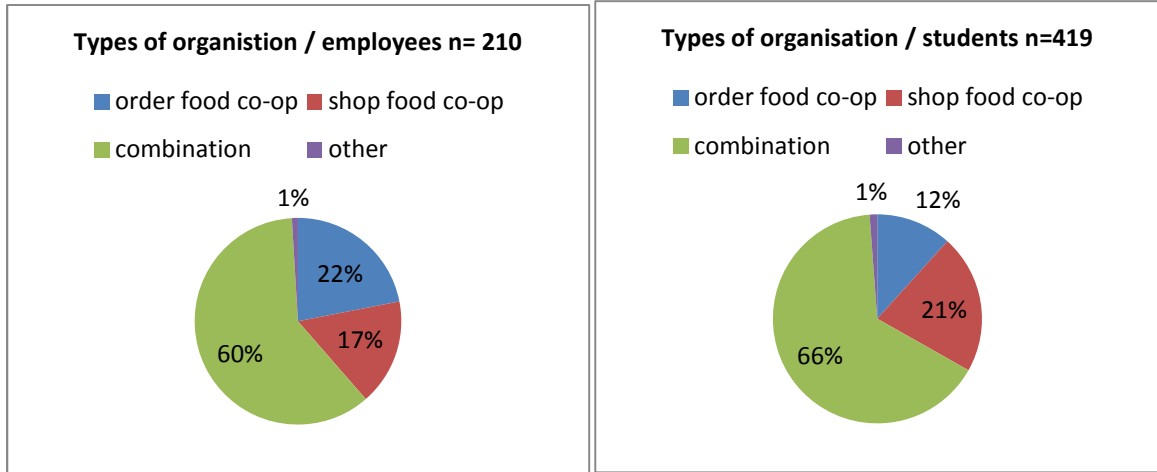

Q8: Would you be interested in joining a food co-op if there was one at BOKU?

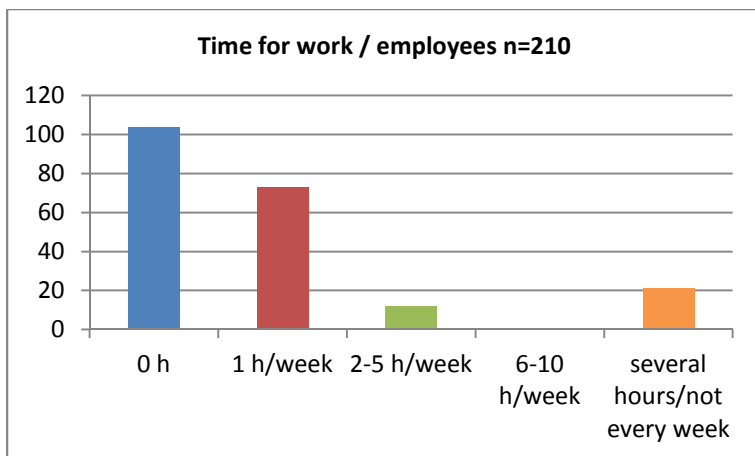

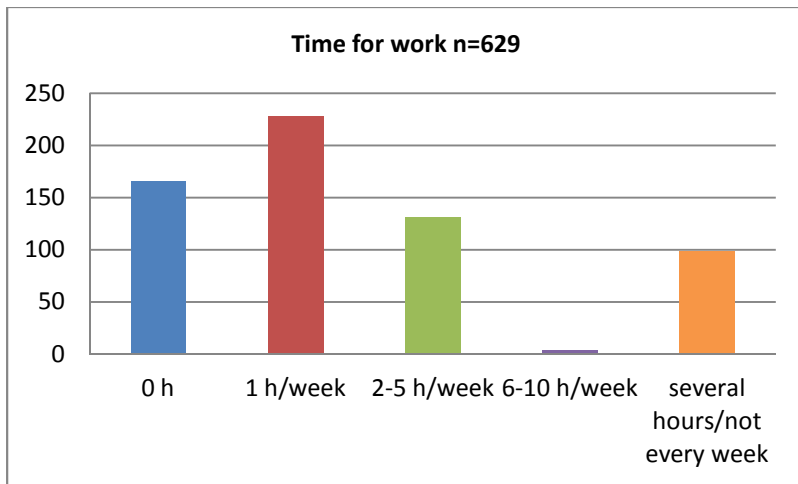

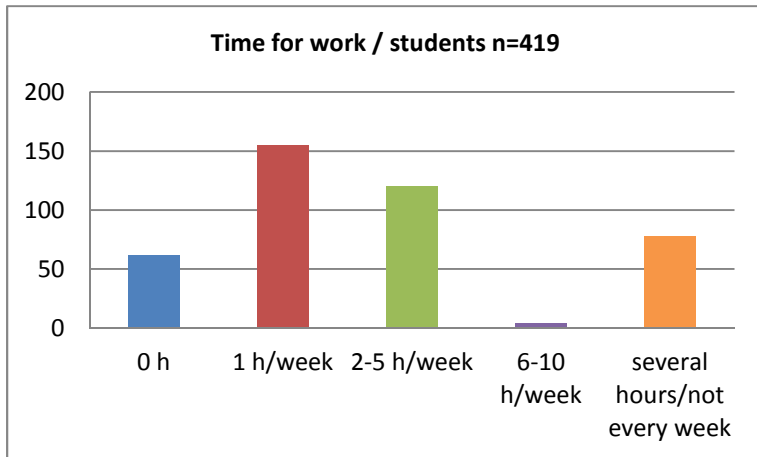

Q9: Which of the following types of organization would you prefer?

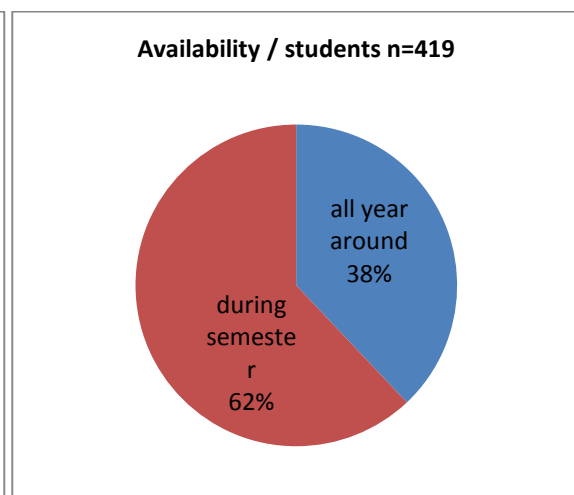

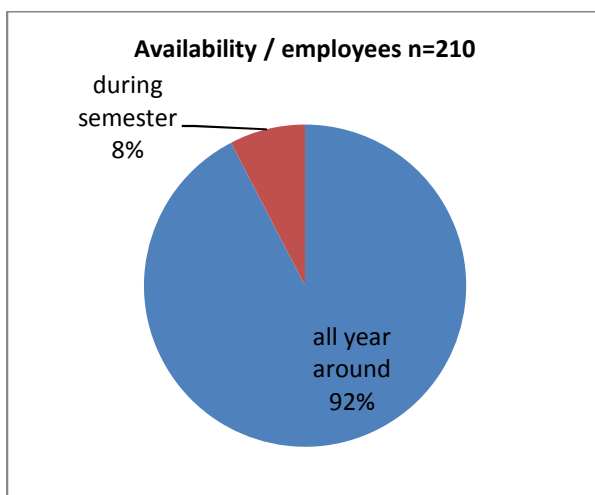

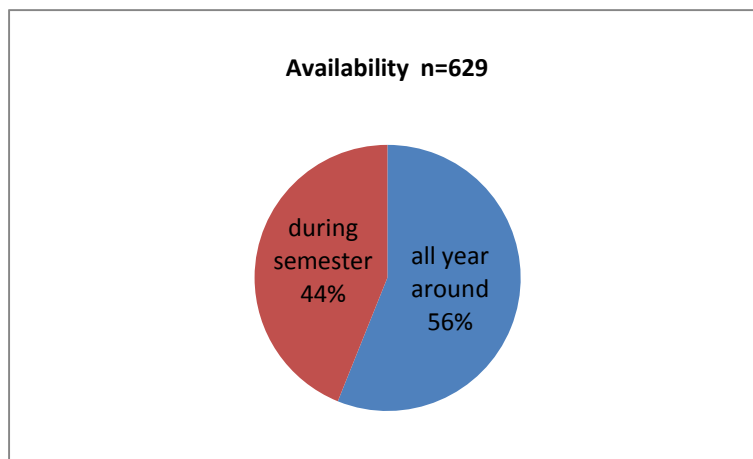

Q10: How much time can you spend to contributing to the food co-op's task?

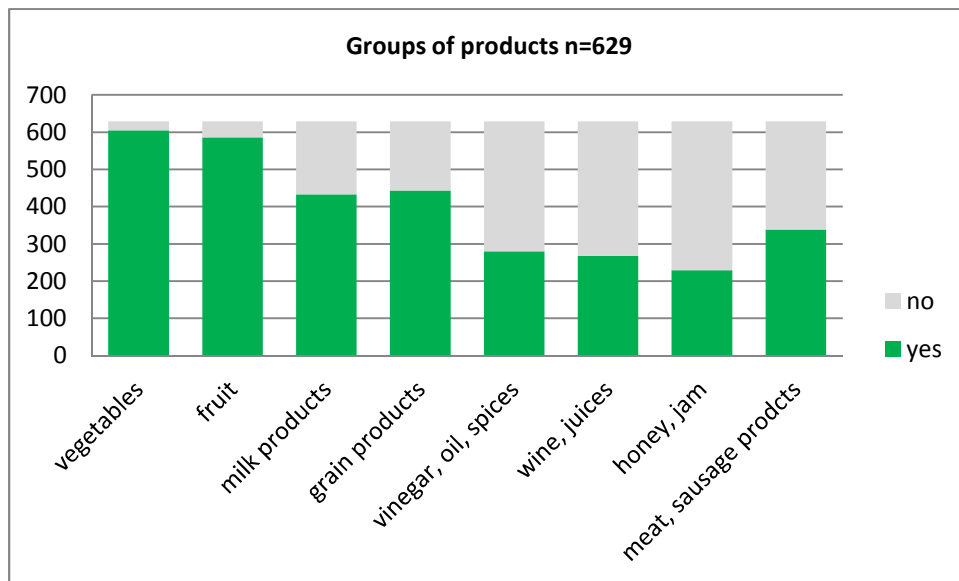

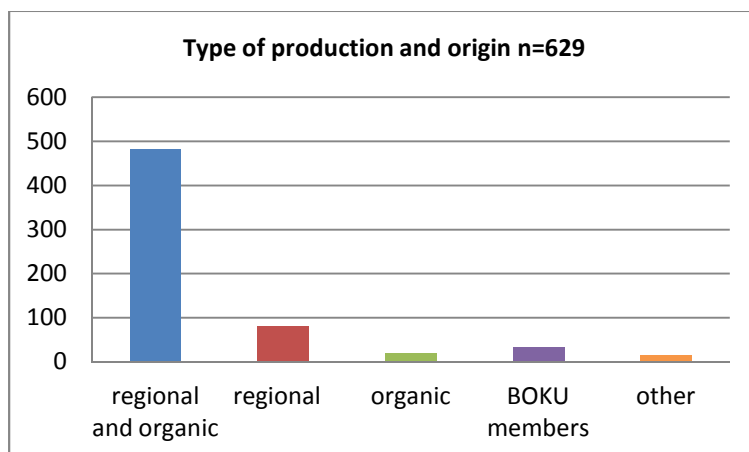

Q11: At which times should the food co-op be open for you?

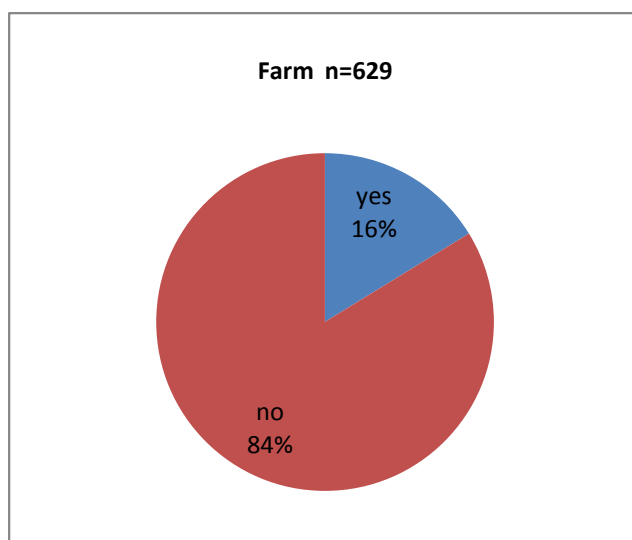

Q12: Which groups of products would you be most interested in buying from the food co-op?

Q13: Which type of production and origin of the products would you prefer?

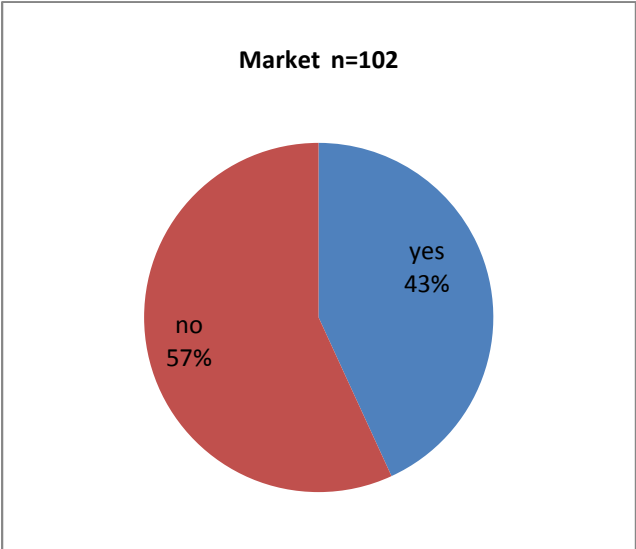

Q14: Do you have a farm or other site of food production?

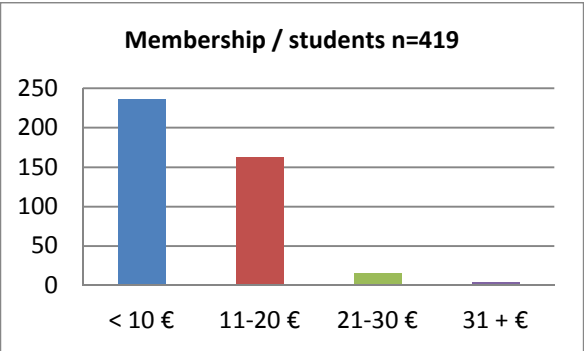

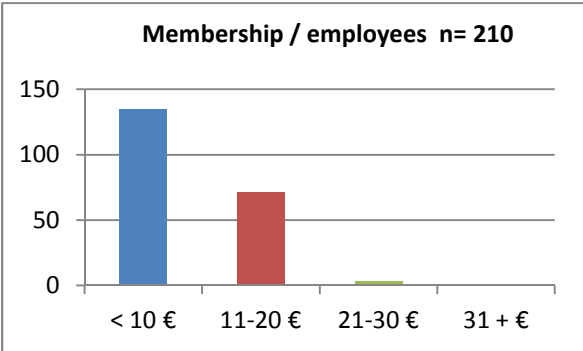

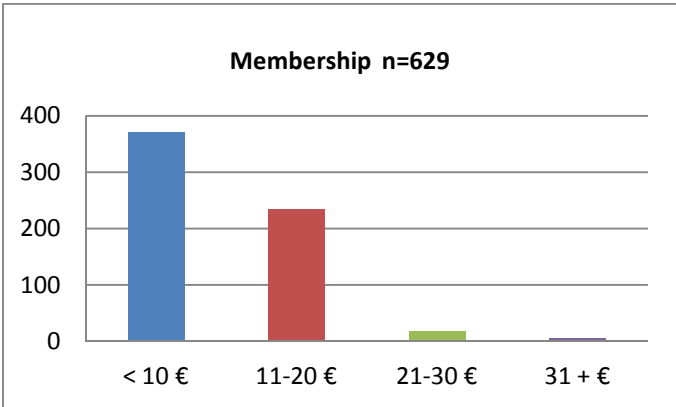

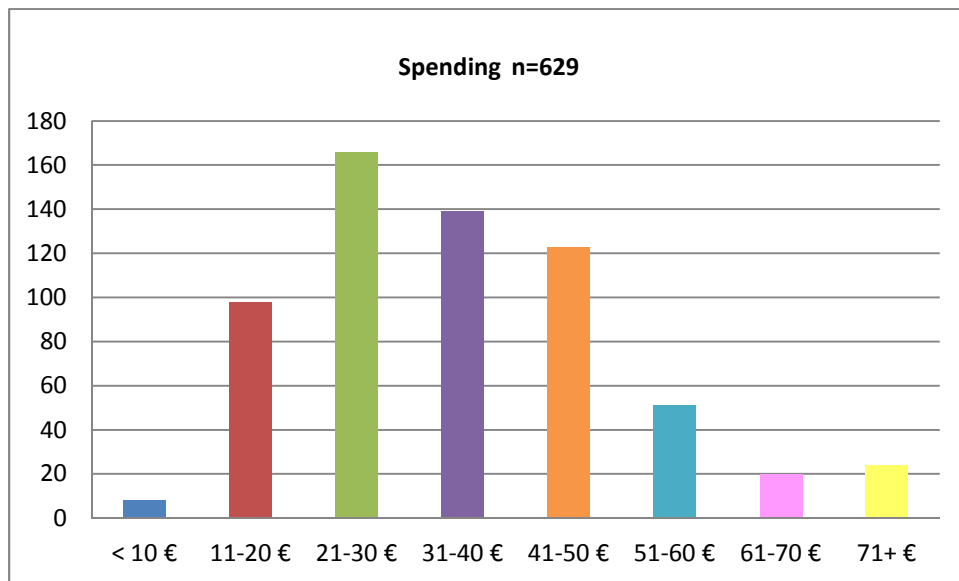

Q15: If yes, would you like to market them through a BOKU food co-op?

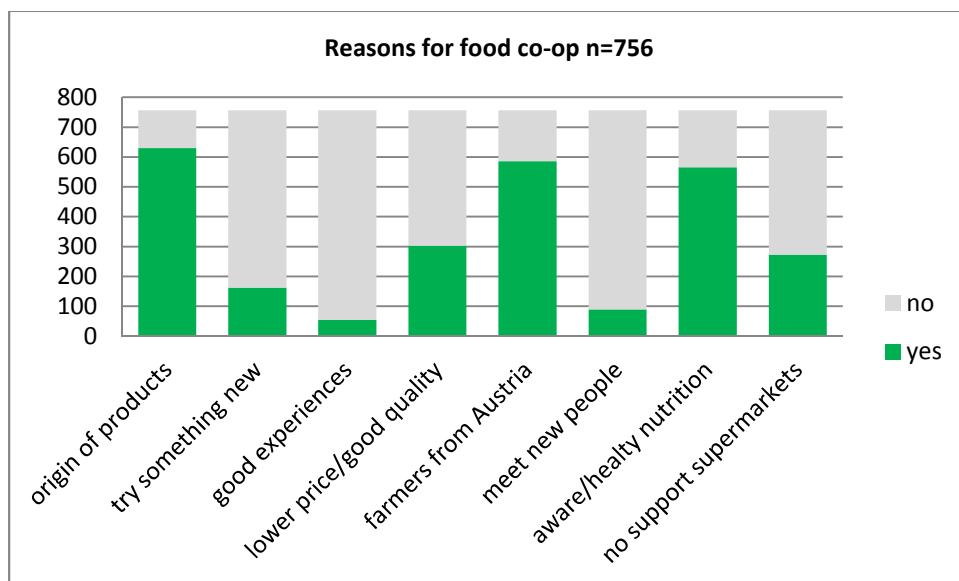

Q16: How much would you be ready to pay, for the monthly membership?

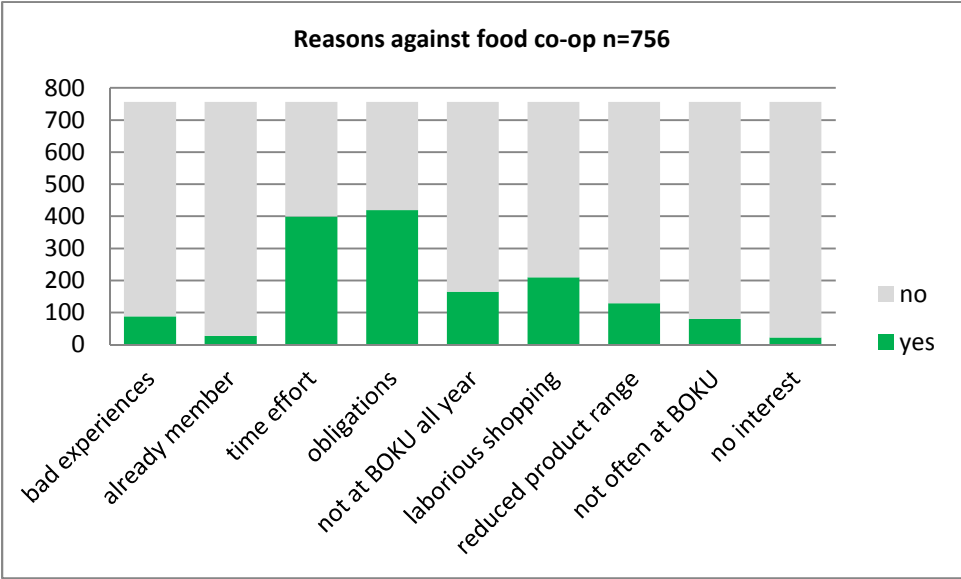

Q17: How much money are you spending weekly per person for food at present?

Q18: What are the reasons why you would like to participate in a food co-op at BOKU?

Q19: What reasons would stop you from joining a food co-op at BOKU?

Q20: As an incoming / exchange student: Would you be interested in joining a food co-op during your stay at BOKU?

