1ST CIRCULAR: INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON CHALLENGES FOR AGROECOLOGY DEVELOPMENT FOR THE BUILDING OF SUSTAINABLE AGRI-FOOD SYSTEMS

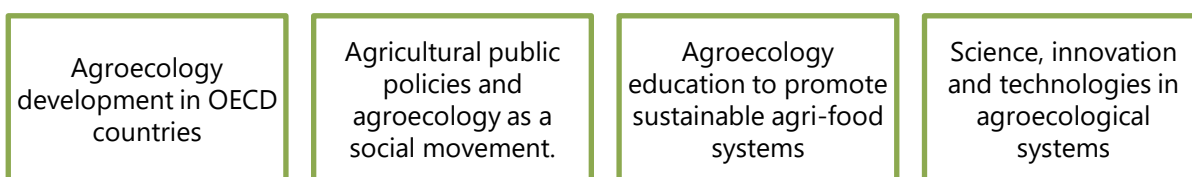

*University of Chile
November 11-13, 2019
Santiago, Chile.*

University of Chile is pleased to invite you to join us at the “Workshop on Challenges for Agroecology Development for the Building of Sustainable Agri-Food Systems” that will be held at the Faculty of Agricultural Sciences on November 11-13, 2019.

The main aim of this workshop is to promote the transition from conventional agriculture towards agroecology as a science, practice and social movement in different OECD countries.

Is an initiative that will gather experts and stakeholders from different OECD countries to share experiences and knowledge in agroecology in order to promote sustainable agri-food systems. Is an opportunity to exchange ideas and opinions, establish collaborative networks and contribute with knowledge regarding scientific, practical and/or social aspects of agroecology.

Main Topics of the Workshop

Workshop language:

English with simultaneous translation into Spanish.

Sponsored by the OECD Co-operative Research Programme

Important dates

- Abstract Submission deadline: 28 June 2019
- Notification for accepted abstracts: 19 July 2019
- Early bird fees deadline: 13 September 2019
