

International Teaching Week

18 - 22 May, 2020

INTERNATIONAL HELLENIC
UNIVERSITY

Erasmus+

We are pleased to invite guest lecturers from our partner universities to the International Teaching Week, which will take place in Thessaloniki, Kavala, and Serres Greece from 18 till 22 May 2020, which is organized within Erasmus+.

Following the successful organization of International Teaching weeks in the past, the IHU (after the merger in May 2019 with the former Alexander Technological Educational Institute of Thessaloniki and the Technological Educational Institutes of Central Macedonia and Eastern Macedonia and Thrace) is organizing the International Teaching Week in 2020 to provide an opportunity for an international learning environment and networking. In the past years we have welcomed guest lecturers from many Partner and Programme countries within the framework of Erasmus+ programme.

Guest lecturers are invited to prepare lecture sessions or workshops (1st session lasts 90 minutes) for our undergraduate and postgraduate students in the following subject areas:

Accounting and Finance, Agriculture, Biomedical Sciences, Chemistry, Digital Marketing, Early Childhood Care and Education, Electrical engineering, Energy, Environmental studies and Forestry, Food Technology and Dietetics, History and Archaeology, Industrial Engineering and Management, Information systems, Informatics, International Business, Law, Library Science and Information Systems, Management Science and Technology, Mechanical engineering, Nursing and Midwifery, Oenology, Oil and Gas Technology, Organizations Management Marketing, Physics, Physiotherapy, Product Design, SCM, Tourism and Hospitality.

Guest lecturers will be asked to deliver 4 sessions and propose their own topics for their lectures.

Invited lectures will be asked to make a 10 minutes presentation of their university for IHU students and academic staff.

A detailed programme will follow soon.
