

The 2021 Silk Road Agricultural Education and Research Cooperation Forum

Announcement of 10th International Scientific Conference on "Sustainable Development of Agriculture and Economics"

In 2021 we are celebrating our 10th anniversary of our Annual International Conference which means for us a great responsibility in both evaluating our past 10 years of work with our partners abroad and future collaboration in the scientific field with respected professors, researchers and specialists from all over the world. In that means we would also want to express our greatest gratitude to you and your organization for the strong relationship which was a big part of our work and hope it will last for long.

This year's International Conference will be held together with 2021 Silk Road Agricultural Education and Research Cooperation Forum of the Silk Road Agricultural Education and Research Innovation Alliance.

The Silk Road Agricultural Education and Research Innovation Alliance, shortened as SAERIA, is a non-governmental, non-profit, open and international multilateral cooperation platform voluntarily joined by agriculture universities, institutions and enterprises from countries and regions along the Silk Road. The alliance is committed to propelling close cooperation among members in personnel training, scientific research, technology extension, people-to-people exchange, policy research, as well to jointly accelerating the progress and development of agricultural education and technology research in countries and regions along the Silk Road through setting up cooperation platform, innovating cooperation mechanism and strengthening resource sharing.

With this regard we would like to also encourage your organization to join and become a new member of the SAERIA. If you are interested in becoming a member institution of the Alliance, you will be asked to fill out the application procedure in which we could send the details upon your request. In addition, there will be a ceremony of awarding a new membership during the International Conference. For more information, you can visit the Alliance web page: <https://saeria.nwsuaf.edu.cn/englishB/index.htm>

On behalf of the School of Economics and Business of Mongolian University of Life Science we are pleased to invite you to join our International Conference. You will be our premium guest during the conference and we are looking forward to enlarge our academic collaboration.

Please visit the conference web page via the link www.conference.muls.edu.mn to find further details, and please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any clarification.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Ulaanbaatar.
