

Important due dates for successful admission at BOKU

Please be aware that at BOKU definite due dates for admission exist.

1. General EUR-Organic application deadlines:

For non EU-students:

15th of March (for the following winter term)

For EU-students:

1st of June (for the following winter term)

Please note:

Submissions (as soft copies) can be submitted to studienervices@boku.ac.at

Submission arriving after these dates will not be accepted anymore and your application will be discharged.

2. Delayed submission of application documents:

After your submission, your application documents will be evaluated concerning your formal and content-related eligibility.

In case you are still missing documents (BSc Diploma, Proof of English proficiency, etc.) BOKU's study services will contact you with specific requests.

Deadline for submitting these requested documents (of the application) for all EUR-Organic-applicants is 15th of August

Please note:

If the requested documents arrive later than 15th of August, BOKU will discharge your application, but you are able to apply for EUR-Organic in the following year again.

3. Participation to EUR-Organic Start-up Module

Application due date for the EUR-Organic Start-up Module:

1st of August (for the EUR-Organic Start-up Module taking place in September)

Please note:

*Application and participation to the (compulsory) EUR-Organic Start-up Module in the year of your EUR-Organic application and admission is only possible if you received the letter of acceptance (issued by BOKU's study services) to EUR-Organic at BOKU BEFORE the 1st of August.

If you receive the letter of acceptance later than August 1, you are able to participate to the (compulsory) EUR-Organic Start-up Module in the following year if you get in touch with eur-organic\(a\)boku.ac.atboku.ac.at)
