

Master Curriculum Mountain Forestry

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS § 2

Graduates holding a degree (Bachelor's/Master's or equivalent) in Forestry or a related discipline from an accredited university or university-like institution must show competences in basics in natural sciences and socio-economics as well as technical sciences. In particular, applicants have to proof that they passed at least one course during their undergraduate study dealing with the following subjects:

Self-evaluation:

✓ Please tick box when admission requirements fulfilled

- Mathematics or statistics
- Chemistry
- Botany
- Zoology or entomology or wildlife studies
- Ecology
- Silviculture
- Economics and / or social sciences