Prof. Dr Felix Unger, President of EASA

Prof. Dr Vladimir Stevanović, full member of SASA

Prof. Dr Dejan Popović, full member of SASA

Ms Jasmina Kovačević, PR

Mrs Dragana Trajković

Ms Franziska Huber

2. Venue

Sessions will be held at the Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts (Main Hall of SASA, Knez Mihailova 35/II). Belgrade is well known for its cultural, historical and tourist traditions dating back more than a century, pleasant climate and hospitality. Belgrade hotels guarantee pleasant accommodation, rich gastronomic fare, and are close to excellent entertainment and shopping places. The city has a friendly, lively academic atmosphere, due to the presence of the Belgrade University and its students. The organizers hope participants will enjoy their stay in Belgrade, with its beautiful setting on the Sava and Danube river and numerous other attractions. During September the climate is dry with temperatures around 25°C.

3. Conference Themes

- Endangered Danube: What can we do?
- Universities in Transition

4. Call for Papers

Deadline for submission of presentation title: 30 April 2017

Deadline for abstract submission: 16 June 2017

Both should be sent to Ms. Franziska Huber (dac@euro-acad.eu) and Mrs. Dragana Trajković (sasa.foreigndept@sanu.ac.rs)

5. Accommodation

The Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts will cover the expenses of a two night stay for one representative of each Academy and for presenters.
