

2017 call for applications to the Dr. Karl Schleinzer Foundation

The board of the Dr Karl Schleinzer foundation is to award from the proceeds of 2016 several prize grants of €1,000.

Purpose of the foundation:

To carry out research and teaching in all fields of academia at the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna, primarily by providing financial support to students in need who have dedicated themselves to academic research and have performed well in their studies, as well as the provision of support for young academics in all academic fields at the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna.

Requirements:

1. Very good performance in studies (average grade of better than 2.0)
2. In accordance with diploma curriculum:
 - a) Completed first course section in the shortest time possible plus the maximum of two additional semesters
or
 - b) Diploma course completed in a maximum of 12 semesters and diploma thesis awarded grade of "sehr gut" (excellent)

In accordance with new curriculum (bachelor's or master's course):

- a) Completed bachelor course in the shortest time possible plus the maximum of one additional semester
or
- b) Completed master's course in the shortest time possible plus the maximum of one additional semester and with final thesis paper graded "sehr gut" (excellent)

3. Especial consideration will be given to those who
 - a) come from rural areas
 - b) started their studies once already working or after having worked before starting their studies

It is not allowed to file a habilitation paper or for a dissertation study.

Online applications must be completed by May 31th, 2017.

Please access the database via BOKU login: <http://www.boku.ac.at/zid-app-grantsdb.html>

A comprehensive CV, evidence of study performance and additionally the academic activities and a publication list if applicable are to be uploaded as appendices.

Information:

Martina Ragoner
University of Natural Resources
And Life Sciences, Vienna
Research Support
Augasse 2-6, 1090 Vienna
researchfunds@boku.ac.at
Tel.: +43 1 47654 -33011

The prizes will be awarded at an academic ceremony.

Univ.Prof. DI Dr. Dr.h.c.mult. Martin H. Gerzabek
Rector