

GRANSER - United Global Academy Research Prize for Sustainable Hunting

In 2025 The University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna, is awarding a prize for scientific publications from the past two years that make a significant contribution to the development of management strategies for sustainable hunting.

Prize:

Annually, a prize of EUR 3 000, - can be awarded. The reception of the prize requires the publication of a popular science summary of the research findings in the journal DER ANBLICK.

Application Documents:

- A detailed CV with a list of publications
- A German summary of the submitted publication (max. one page)
- A description of the merits of the work (max. one page)
- A clear presentation of the applicant's individual contribution, including the type and extent of the contribution, and, in the case of a co-authored publication, a signed confirmation from the applicant that all co-authors have consented to the application based on this publication (max. one page)
- A scientific original paper published in an international scientific journal (SCI expanded) that aligns with the objectives of the research prize¹.

¹Scientific work from the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna, is considered any original paper where at least one BOKU employee acts as a co-author. The submitting author must be the one who contributed primarily to the work, even if they are not employed at BOKU. The publication must have been released within the last two years.

Submission Deadline: 26th October 2025

Please submit your complete application documents in German or English as a single PDF document (according to the order of application documents listed above) via email to: researchfunds@boku.ac.at.

Committee:

The decision regarding the award is made by a committee. For more detailed information, please refer to the privacy policy.

Information:

Martina Ragoner +43 1 47654-33011
Johanna Stöger +43 1 47654-33017
University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna
Research Support
Peter Jordan Street 70, 1190 Vienna researchfunds@boku.ac.at

The awards will be presented at an academic ceremony at the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna.

Univ.Prof.ⁱⁿ Mag.^a Mag.^a Dr.ⁱⁿ Eva Schulev-Steindl, LL.M.
Rektorin der Universität für Bodenkultur Wien

Information on the processing of personal data

As of 25 May 2018, the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR) is directly applicable in all Member States of the European Union.

The GDPR, inter alia, provides for extended information requirements in regard to the processing of personal data.

In fulfilment of those obligations (in particular Art 13 GDPR) we are hereby informing you about the processing of your personal data carried out by us.

1. What type of personal data (hereinafter “Data”) will be processed?

Name, surname, address, mail, phone number, scientific paper/publication, application documents, CV, bank details in case of winning

2. What is the purpose of the data processing?

Conducting the selection process for the call for applications, determining the award winners, and organizing the award ceremony

3. What is the legal basis for the data processing?

Art 6 (1) (a) GDPR – Consent

We would like to point out that the consent can be revoked at any time with effect for the future.

This entails

no adverse consequences for you.

the following adverse consequences for you: participation is not possible.

Upon revocation of consent we will in any case no longer process your Data for the above mentioned purpose from this time and, in particular, erase any Data (still) stored, unless the Data is processed on the basis of one of the following legal bases.

Art 6 (1) (b) GDPR – required for the fulfilment of a contract concluded with the data subject

Art 6 (1) (c) GDPR – required for the fulfilment of a legal obligation of the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna

Art 6 (1) (d) GDPR – required to protect vital interests of the data subject or another natural person

Art 6 (1) (e) GDPR – the processing is in the public interest or is carried out in the exercise of official authority

Art 6 (1) (f) GDPR – required to safeguard the following legitimate interests of the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna or a third party (the interests or fundamental rights or freedoms of the data subject do not prevail):

Please describe under this item the legitimate interests.

4. Is there an obligation for you as a data subject to provide your Data to the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna?

No

No, but the provision of the Data is required for the conclusion of a contract. If the Data are not provided, this will result in a situation where the contract cannot be concluded.

Yes, since the provision of the Data is a statutory or contractual requirement. If the Data is not provided, this will result in the following: Please describe under this item the potential consequence(s) of not providing the Data.

5. Is automated decision-making (including profiling) part of the processing?

No

Yes, namely:

Please describe under this item the logic underlying the automated decision-making as well as the significance and the intended consequences of processing for the data subject.

6. Will the Data be transferred to other persons or entities in whole or in part?

No

Yes, in the course of processing your Data will be transferred to the following recipients for the above-mentioned purpose:

Board of trustees of the Granser Research Prize in the case of an award: authorized internal personnel for the further handling of the process.

Board of Trustees: President Prof. Dr.hc. Günther A. Granser (Founder); Univ.Prof.in Mag.a Mag.a Dr.in Eva Schulev-Steindl, LL.M. (Rector BOKU); Univ.Prof. Dipl.-Ing. Dr. Dr.h.c.mult. Martin Gerzabek (BOKU); Univ. Prof. Dipl.Biol. Dr. Klaus Hackländer (BOKU); President Dr. Michl Ebner (FACE); President Mag. Erwin Hameseder (RAIFFEISEN-HOLDING); President Dr. Franz Harnoncourt-Unverzagt (GRAWE); Editor-in-chief Ing. Martin Ossmann (DER ANBLICK)

7. Are the recipients mentioned under Item 6 located outside the EU/outside the EEA and/or are they an international organisation?

No

Yes

8. How long will the Data be stored and/or what are the criteria for determining the storage period?

The data will be deleted after the completion of the call for applications, but no later than 12 months after the end of the call and the academic ceremony.

9. What are your rights as a data subject?

Generally, you have a right to request from the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna access to and rectification or erasure of your Data or restriction of processing concerning you or to object to processing as well as the right to data portability.

To exercise these rights please contact our data protection officer (for contact details see Item 10).

In addition, you have the right to lodge any appeals you may have with the data protection authority.

10. Contact details of the controller and their data protection officer:

- Controller
University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna
Gregor-Mendel-Strasse 33
1180 Vienna
- Data protection officer
Muthgasse 11/II
1190 Vienna
datenschutz@boku.ac.at

General and more detailed information on the topic of data protection at the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna can be found at www.boku.ac.at/datenschutz.