

BOKU saves energy

How can proper use of doors and windows contribute to energy savings?

As a general rule, keep doors closed to ensure proper ventilation and save energy.

Cross ventilation instead of tilting!

It is much more efficient and heat-saving to cross-ventilate for 3-5 minutes several times a day.

Keep window sills clear of objects that cast shadows.

Join in!

- » Reduce together
- » Motivate others
- » Share tips
- » Send ideas to esk@boku.ac.at

More info at:
<https://short.boku.ac.at/ESK>

BOKU
UNIVERSITY