

Declaration of Consent for the Creation and Publication of Photographs

First name (block letters): _____

Last name (block letters): _____

BOKU organizational unit: _____

I grant the BOKU University a non-exclusive right of use, unlimited in time and location, for the images created as part of this photo shoot. This right of use includes the publication of the images on BOKU's online platforms (e.g., BOKUweb, BOKUonline, social media channels) as well as the editing of the images (e.g., adjustment of cropping, brightness, contrast). Any further use by BOKU beyond this scope requires prior consultation with me.

The processing of the images is carried out in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The images will be used exclusively for the purposes stated above. Further information on the processing of personal data can be found in the privacy policy of the BOKU University.

I have the right to withdraw my consent to the use of the images at any time with effect for the future. The withdrawal must be submitted in writing to the BOKU University, using the email address datenschutz@boku.ac.at. In the event of withdrawal, the images will no longer be used and, where possible, deleted.

The depicted person is entitled to use the images created during this photo shoot free of charge for private purposes, provided that no other persons are recognizable in the image (e.g., portrait photo). This also includes publication on private social media channels, provided that such use does not impair and/or endanger the interests or reputation of BOKU. Such use is not subject to the requirement to name the author (photographer) of the images or to include a copyright notice.

Place: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____